AN INFAMOUS LIE.

Some one has touched the button and the Tribune in an another hell-roarin excursion, the last before election. The Tribune has an affectionate interest in Dr. Fess. It should have for the Editor helped raise a part of the corruption fund previous to the constitutional election.

The Tribune is the only paper in the county that has alluded to a story concerning Dr. Fess. The Herald heard the same story weeks ago but never gave it much credence other than related what was in circulation to a friend.

Now it happens that a social gathering near Xenia several nights ago, a stock holder in the Tribune related the same story to our friend, and this stock holder poses as one of the leading lights in political and civic righteousness in Xenia.

We challenge the Tribune Editor with the statement that we had intention of publishing the story as an infamous lie and stand ready to face any man on the denial.

The Tribune has done more to injure Dr. Fess than any other movement and has started the wheels of gossip in motion. It's the Dr's egotistical friends that is bringing him down to defeat.

For peace and prosperity: William Howard Taft.

Dr. Fess voted in the Con. Con. to license Hell. All those who endorse such a license please rise. Those that are standing owe their vote to the Dr.

There is no hope of doing away with governmental liquor license by sending Dr. Fess to Congress, when his position on this issue is perfectly clear.

A rainbow chaser there is none that can equal Bigelow and Fess and it really is disappointing that they could not be given a county to themselves to experiment as to their idea of state government.

Under the new constitution the legislature is empowered to grant the widow of every prisoner in the penitentiary a stipulated sum. The more was paid out about the constitution the more certain we become in our opposition to Dr. Fess.

Mr. S. O. Anderson is quoted in Cincinnati Post as being opposed to employers liability, municipal home rule, and a number of propositions of Socialistic nature forced through Con. Con. by Bigelow and Fess.

The declaration of Mr. Anderson should make him an easy winner for representative next week. That's the kind of sentiment the people like to hear.

Last May Judge Shoup was a horrible specimen of humanity among the Fess followers. Today he is held asking among those who are seeking to elect the Dr. at any cost. And it will take the Judge at his best to pull the Dr. through.

There will be no complaint from Fess this time about the Fourth Ward results for the ballot box stuffers are working like trojans for his election.

Think before you vote. Dr. Fess stated last June that his greatest desire to go to congress was to attract eastern money to Antioch college. How does he "pose to attract this money, b his vote with the corporate interests or by the use of his official position at the expense of the district? If by the latter why does he not include Wilmington College, Lebanon University and Cedarville College, all of which are in the district. Think before you vote.

The manner in which the Fess followers are grasping straws can best be shown in the attitude of some over the editorial in our last issue as to Rev. McMichael rejecting Fess. The editorial so angered the Fess followers that they turned on the Rev. and would have the public believe that he had authorized the statement. The Herald assumes all responsibility for what was published and is willing to relieve Rev. McMichael of any responsibility of the announcement being given the public. The editorial was based on statements made during a discussion of the campaign. Any attempt of the Fess people to discredit the editorial in contrast with an interview merely proves that the Dr. has a lot of "lunkheads" managing his campaign.

When a self constituted committee takes it upon itself to do the thinking for the people and attempt coercion when men differ in view, it is time that such a committee and the candidate it represents be laid on the shelf. And this is going to be done next Tuesday.

As Dr. Fess has made good use of the Sabbath day in forwarding his campaign, the Herald suggests that the Xenia opera house be procured for this coming Sabbath night so that every minister in the county that is supporting the Dr. could have opportunity of approving of the Dr's stand in voting for liquor license in the constitutional convention. Rev. Elderidge of the Anti Saloon league also endorses the Dr. and he should be invited. Marcus Shoup is the latest acquisition in the Fess camp and head his aide should have a place on the stage. It must not be overlooked that the Judge was for license also, consequently he is now among his friends. Such a meeting would not be out of place, nor would there be anything inconsistent about it. The people of the county would only be given an opportunity of seeing some damned faces among those who wear the ministerial garb.

When you are handed your ballot next Tuesday do not overlook the name of W. R. McChesney for state school commissioner on the prohibition ticket. Dr. McChesney is eminently qualified for the position he has been nominated for and he deserves a handsome vote not only in these two precincts but in the county as well. Home pride should influence you in giving Dr. McChesney your vote if nothing else.

THE REASON WHY.

The following are the reasons why you should vote for the purchase of the fair ground.

1. Option expires in one year.
2. It is a good investment for the county as an advantageous option has been secured on the fair grounds. It is a good time to buy before option expires.
3. It will be free from tax.
4. Rent and temporary improvements each year cost the fair board $1500 or 5000 admission tickets at 25 cents each.
5. The members of the fair board receive no pay.
6. Vote Yes.

If the tax levy is approved the grounds will be purchased and they will belong to the county just as the home for the infirm and for children. All improvements that follow will enhance the value of the county's property. As it has been the county must make the improvements and then they become the property of the present owners.

SHREWD IDEA OF DIPLOMAT

Where Russian Officer of Embassy Proved Himself a Match for Abdul Hamid.

Diplomatists abroad tell how a distinguished member of the Russian corps diplomatique cleverly outwitted Abdul Hamid, the late Sultan of Turkey. The Russian displayed a cunning ingenuity in introducing the business of his country in the guise of personal pleasure.

It appears that the Sultan had absolutely refused to grant an audience to any member of the diplomatic body at Constantinople and that during the period in question Abdul Hamid spent the greater part of his time in cock-fighting, an amusement whereof he was passionately fond.

The Russian heard that his imperial majesty stood in need of fresh birds to supply the place of those killed in fight, whereupon the wily Muscovite procured a fine-looking white fowl of the barnyard species, caused it to be trimmed and spiced to resemble a gamecock, and sent it in a richly decorated cage to the Sultan.

The ruse was successful, but the Sultan, at first delighted with the gift, soon sent for the diplomatist to explain. If he could, why his bird had shown no inclination to fight. The Russian went, examined the bird in the presence of Abdul Hamid, and with great astonishment and regret acknowledged that it was quite unable to cope with the royal gamecocks, which were undoubtedly of a superior breed.

A conference followed on the subject of gamecocks in general, and when this was finished the Muscovite succeeded in drawing the Sultan in a mood of conversation of a different character, and in time adroitly introduced the political matter he had so long awaited an opportunity to discuss. After a long interview he returned to his embassy triumphant over his colleagues.—Harper's Weekly.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP.

While there is much of good, we believe, in both Men and measures, in the old line political parties and in the new—in the distinctly Christian touch, we believe the Lord Jesus would enter none of them.

Our governmental system by supplanting the will of the Divine Mediator by the will of the people, by ignoring moral obligation, by eliminating the basis of appeal to the public civic conscience—becomes a shelter to moral evils that are eating at the vitals of the Republic. Such evils, the liquor traffic, desecration of the Lord's day, impurity, profanity—the menace of special privilege, graft and political corruption.

Can the Christian citizen consistently support the prohibition party? We say no. First of all, it is identified with the governmental system described. Secondly its acknowledgment in its party platform is identical merely.

What authority has been committed to the Divine Mediator—Scriptural teaching—is a plain as the sun at noon. "The ancient prophet declares, 'the governments shall be upon his shoulder.' "He has the Governor among the nations," Jesus declared, "All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth." "The Father judgeth no man but hath committed all judgment unto the Son." "He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father which sent him."

The point of opposition of the non-federacy of darkness is "we will not have this man to reign over us." The humble disciples of Jesus went about Galilee declaring in the face of the proud Roman Empire, "There is another King, one Jesus." Rome laughed, if she noticed the challenge. Rome crumbled before his power, and turned into dust.

Our great American Republic was founded by Christian men, its new-born life baptized in Christian faith. The Christian citizen claims for his country its rightful inheritance.

If this proud American commonwealth will not submit, let it fear his mighty hand: for, "He will judge among the nations." "He will fill the places with dead bodies!"

What is left to the Christian Citizen? An instrument of power—a consistent protest against an immoral governmental system. It was not ballots, but a hand full of men (armed with the power of protest) who refused to stand in complicity with the crime of American Slavery, that forced the issue and the settlement of the question of human freedom.

A. M. George.

Editor:—I desire a small amount of space to write of Eugene W. Chaffin's speech at Marion, Ind., last week, he being the prohibition candidate for President. He made some comparisons to the chances of the various candidates and summed it up by stating that the race was between Mr. Wilson and himself. The candidate continued that if the people would vote their sentiments on the liquor question he would carry every state in the Union.

A striking statement in his address was that for forty years the party had only been able to get "but two per cent of the Christian conscience in the ballot box." He regarded it about time to quit working with church people and appeal to drunkards to save their own souls by aiding the cause of prohibition.

Mr. Chaffin also said: "I can take ten foreigners right from the old country and teach them the English language and instruct them in temperance and make prohibitionists out of them quicker than I could out of ten bishops in my own church. I am getting tired of seeing our bishops and preachers pray for one thing and go right to the ballot box and vote against it."

Last May the people of the county was asked to assist in electing what they termed a "reform central committee" and voters of all the political parties were asked to give their vote to candidates so endorsed and they were victorious. Now what do we find in the way of reform? This same committee openly espousing the cause of General Brown, who has hindered every temperance movement in Muskingum county. This is what the good people get for electing a so-called "reform committee." Nothing more can be said of the Democratic candidate, James Cox.

The only candidate for governor worthy of your support is Daniel A. Foiling, but our "reform" committee is doing all it can for a wet candidate, in opposition to the only candidate that is running on a platform like the one this committee advocated last May.

Is Golf Scotch or Dutch? The origin of golf, one of the most popular pastimes in the United Kingdom, has generally been ascribed to Scotland. But this is a fallacy. In fact, however, it is asserted that it is to Holland we owe this game, and that it was brought from Holland to Scotland. For instance, the name "golf" itself is derived from the Dutch word "rolle," meaning a ball or club. "Rolle" is derived from the Dutch word "rol," meaning, in front. From "putten"—the Dutch word to hole—we get our English word put; and niblick—the Scotch "knibloch," a knob of wood—is derived from the Dutch knobbe-liek, meaning knotty.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By H. O. SMITH, Director of Evening Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 3.

THE SIGN AND THE LEAVEN.

LESSON: GOLDEN TEXT: "Jesus saith unto them, He walk in the light of life." Mark 8:12-18.

In order to understand this lesson we must read carefully John 6:1-15, also the parallel in Matthew 15:1-9. Persistent Pharisees were ever at hand whirling to accuse him. Claiming to represent the Jews to show them a sign from heaven, turning upon him and forgetting what weather to expect the coming day and yet you do not discern the sign of the times. "I have come and revealed those things that have been hid from the fathers, that you cannot read in my face." "The Father judgeth no man but hath committed all judgment unto the Son." "He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father which sent him."

The point of opposition of the non-federacy of darkness is "we will not have this man to reign over us." The humble disciples of Jesus went about Galilee declaring in the face of the proud Roman Empire, "There is another King, one Jesus." Rome laughed, if she noticed the challenge. Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health. Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regard the effects of constipation. C. E. Ayers, 6 Sabin St., Montpelier, Vt. "I was afflicted with constipation for years and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found that they had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case!"

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

The township trustees kindly ask the people to keep off the Wilmington road while the repairing is going on. The road is open to those who live along it and by outsiders going over it before it is finished works great damage. People should have enough interest in getting a good road and not hinder the work while it is going on. It will require at least two weeks yet before the road will be open to the public.

The county commissioners have named the judges in the corn contest, the winners of which get a trip to Washington, D. C., under the direction of the State Board of Agriculture. For Miami township, H. N. Ose and David Hill; Cedarville, Charles Cooley and David Rakestraw.

Mr. S. K. Williamson was able to be in town Tuesday, the first for several weeks having been confined with neuritis.

HOME MISSION WEEK.

The Home Mission Council, consisting of all the Home Mission Board of the evangelical denominations in America, is conducting a campaign of education which it is hoped will arouse the Christian church to a definite effort for the evangelization of our country. The week of November 17-21 has been set aside as Home Mission Week to be observed throughout the churches of the land in the interests of this movement. Locally the week will be observed by a series of union meetings to be addressed by Dr. McWhiney, Dr. Pult Rev. Taylor and Miss McMichael. The subjects so far discussed are "The City Problem," "Immigration," "The Negro Problem," "Country Life and Moral Reform," "Foster announcement of the time and place of these meetings will be made later, but it is hoped that the people of the community will appear as possible leave the week open for these meetings, giving them precedence over all social gatherings on November 17 to 21 as Home Mission Week.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Freeman Eagleson, candidate for Attorney General, on the Republican ticket gave an instructive talk at the opera house Tuesday evening. Mr. Eagleson is a prominent Republican in the state and has always stood for the interests of the people.

Dr. S. D. Fess was the other speaker and he confined his talk to the tariff question never once mentioning the constitutional convention. Music was furnished by the Jamestown band and Xenia Glac Club. Hon. Andrew Jackson presided.

A delegation of Jamestown people numbering 76, in 17 automobiles left that enterprising village early Monday on a 100 mile tour touching all the surrounding towns advertising the Halloween Carnival held in that place Thursday evening. A band accompanied the party and gave a few selections in the public square while various members of the advertising committee posted the advertising. When it comes to enterprise in booming their own town, Jamestown people are at the top.

THEATRE NOTES.

Rarely ever in theatrical history has a production withstood the test of time as has "Madame Sherry" which is playing to as large and as enthusiastic audiences to-day as when first produced five years ago. On Wednesday, November 14th, this musical comedy will visit the Fairbanks Theatre, Springfield, for one performance and the people of that vicinity will be glad of another opportunity for attending witnessing the production. The popularity of the music in this piece has continued throughout the years since it was first introduced to the public and "Every Little Movement" will continue to be whistled and sung for a long time to come. The same excellent company which that city before will return in "Madame Sherry" except that the leading role has been given to Ann Tasker, who had a prominent part in the production of "The Spring Maid" which created a furore in this city last season.

A CARD.

The following letter recently received here in answer to inquiries throws some light upon recent action in election matters:
TINKER & CAPPEL
ATTORNEYS-
Chillicothe, Ohio.
October 23, 1912.

My dear Sir:—
In reply to yours of October 21st, I will say that the Secretary of State Mr. Graves made the decision which you inquired about a little more than a year ago in a Guernsey County case. The question came upon the sufficiency of a petition for nomination for member of the Constitutional Convention and he held that a petition without the committee was void. He also followed that ruling in regard to the petition of W. E. Buser from this county, who had filed a petition for delegate to the Constitutional Convention.
Hoping that this may be satisfactory, I remain,
Sincerely,
E. A. Tinker.

We publish this to let the electors of Greene County see a little more clearly some of the methods and favoritism that prevail where fair and open dealing are the only methods that can be tolerated. It will be remembered that, of the candidates for Probate Judge, C. F. Howard's and W. F. Traylor's petitions named no committee to fill a vacancy. Judge Dean's petition, while it contained the place of his residence once, did not contain it upon each separate sheet of the petition. This defect was held fatal to the last petition, but the defects of the others not fatal. This notwithstanding the positive language of the statutes.

From a perusal of the above letter it will be seen that, on two other occasions when others were to be disposed of in a similar way, the failures to name committees in the petition were fatal by a ruling of the Secretary of State.

There can be no other conclusion but that our election laws have been administered, in this instance at least, with a purpose to thereby defeat the candidacy of J. N. Dean, with little or no regard for the provisions of the statutes, consistency with former decisions of the Secretary of State, or anything else. The only method the elector has of rebuking such unfair methods is by writing the name of J. N. Dean in the last voting space on the Judicial Ballot and making a cross before the name. See enclosed sample ballot.

THE WALKING CANDIDATE.

Oliver Watson, Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Greene County, has about completed his canvass of the county, and says that he has many reasons to believe that his efforts will be crowned with success. Whether elected or not he desired to thank his many new-made friends with whom he has come in contact, and to say that in every case, excepting three or four, he has been treated with kindly consideration. His ambition, he says, is to be placed in a position to treat them as kindly and with as much consideration as they have treated him. No doubt Mr. Watson would make an ideal official. His experience in law would certainly fit him for that position. He is serving his seventh term as Mayor of Bellbrook and his second term as Justice of the Peace of Sugar Creek Township. He is also a member in good standing in the M. E. church at Bellbrook. If elected he promises to treat all in a fair, impartial manner.
